

871 Fine Arts: Land Arts Ephemera
Collection CAE1212

Introduction/Abstract

The archive consists of ephemeral material purchased by the Center for Art + Environment from 871 Fine Arts, a gallery that specializes in out-of-print materials. Materials consist of land arts related ephemera.

Biographical Note: 871 Fine Arts

871 Fine Arts is a San Francisco art gallery and art bookstore specializing in out-of-print materials that has been in business since 1986.

Scope and Content

The archive consists of ephemeral material purchased by the Center for Art + Environment from 871 Fine Arts, a gallery that specializes in out-of-print materials. Materials include the exhibition announcements including the first Earthworks exhibition held by Dwan Gallery, Christo's 1985 Pont Neuf project announcement, and correspondence between Chicago MOCA and Marcel Duchamp and Walter De Maria in 1967 and 1968, respectively.

Inclusive Dates

1965 – 1999

Bulk Dates

1967 – 1970

Quantity/Extent

.125 cubic feet

Language

English, French

Arrangement

The 871 Fine Arts: Land Arts Ephemera archive is organized into three folders:

- Folder 1: Exhibition Related Correspondence
- Folder 2: Individual Artist Exhibition Ephemera
- Folder 3: Multiple Artist Exhibition Ephemera

Related Archives

- CAE0901: The Deiro Collection
- CAE0909: The Arcy Douglass Land Arts Investigations and Writings Collection
- CAE1209: Helen Mayer and Newton Harrison: The Lagoon Cycle

Container Listing by Folder:

CAE Box 72

- 1 Exhibition Related Correspondence, 1967 – 1985
- 2 Individual Artist Exhibition Ephemera, 1965 – 1992
- 3 Multiple Artist Exhibition Ephemera, 1968 – 1999

CAE1212: Additional Materials

CAE S-Box 11

- 2#13 Michelle Stuart “Silent Gardens: The American Landscape,” 1988

CAE Flat File F16: Oversized Items

- 2#10 Sunlight Dispersion, Charles Ross, Dwan Gallery exhibition announcement, 1971
- 2#11 An Environment by Charles Ross, Dilexi Gallery exhibition announcement, 1965
- 2#12 David Ireland’s House, Leah Levy Gallery Announcement, 1981

CAE Box 46: Objects

- 3#4 Earthworks, Dwan Gallery exhibition announcement, 1968