Scope and Content

Artist Julie Meyer's research-based practice investigates city fringes and landscape's borders. She visited Wendover and West Wendover four times from April 2013 to August 2016 and made a series of maps on graph paper, small sketches, and snapshots calibrated to Google Earth™ that documented the layout of the twin towns and the liminal and transitional spaces in which she is interested. The archive contains the artist's project notebook titled Icarus, that documents her mapping process and includes sketches and photographs of Wendover, Utah and West Wendover, Nevada.
